

My Favorite Painting
Brian D.

I have a mental illness. I like going to Wal-mart, and I want to work there again. I also like hanging out with my friends.

It is fun and makes me feel good to draw pictures. This picture has a cross and a bird in it. I hope someone buys my picture so I can get an orange and white and green and yellow and gold book from Wal-mart. I like to draw in the books, and I collect them.
