Ben

I am a poet, musician and artist who lives in Montgomery. My artwork has been displayed across Alabama as well as at the State Capitol, and covers painting landscapes, still life and abstract styles. In 2006, I wrote a book titled “A Simple Twist of Faith” and the award winning song “Lifetime.”

I recently won best of show in the Creativity exhibit in Birmingham. I hope you will enjoy my eclectic style of painting. I am currently serving as the Art/Media Coordinator for Wings Across Alabama, an outreach to people with mental illnesses across the state.
