

House
Ricky

I am self-taught in my art training. I have never had any training otherwise. I get a chance to relax while I am painting and drawing. I get to appreciate what drawing and painting are about. I relax and don't worry about my mental health issues. I like art I make because I feel better. I sometimes think better while I am doing it too.