

http://www.theabtribune.com/mountain_views/have-breakfast-and-learn-of-state-s-struggle/article_9ebcbecc-875d-11e7-b154-53f32d48d40c.html

Have breakfast and learn of state's struggle

Rose Myers is a former journalist now employed by the marketing department of Marshall Medical Centers. 14 hrs ago

It's a sad state of affairs for mental health in Alabama. If you want to know just how bad things are for this fragile population and how our state got to the point of crisis, attend a presentation in Guntersville next month.

Lake Guntersville Chamber of Commerce hosts a Healthcare Breakfast every year to keep residents informed with news about healthcare. Marshall Medical Centers sponsors the event. It's an opportunity to gather with neighbors and friends for a free breakfast and learn something about healthcare.

For more on this story please pick up Wednesday's Tribune or purchase an e-edition.