

WISH LIST: October 28, 2018 | Where to donate in West Alabama

Posted Oct 28, 2018 at 11:30 AM

Alabama Blues Project

Alabama Blues Project, a nonprofit providing music lessons to children in the after-school programs in and around Tuscaloosa, needs guitars, strings and picks. Call 752-6263.

ProjectBlessings.org

Project Blessings.org needs cleaning products, towels, sheets, paintbrushes, paint rollers and cash donations to help local low-income and underprivileged homeowners repair their homes. Call Betsy at 792-0542.

West Alabama Food Bank

The West Alabama Food Bank needs canned fruit, peanut butter, pasta, rice, dry beans, helper-style meal boxes, canned food items and soups. Call 333-5353.

Tuscaloosa City Schools

Students in the Tuscaloosa City Schools system need string instruments for music classes. To donate a violin, viola, cello or bass in good condition, reach Anne C. Witt at 348-1460 or acwitt@ua.edu.

The Arc

The Arc of Tuscaloosa County, a nonprofit that serves adults with cognitive, intellectual and developmental disabilities, needs the following items: paper plates, paper towels, napkins, small foam drinking cups, copy paper, acrylic paints of all colors, canvasses of any size, paintbrushes and colored pencils. Call Michelle at 556-4900 or email michelle@thearcoftuscaloosa.org.