

National Prevention Week Activities in Alabama
 Certified Prevention Providers Calendar of Events
 May 18- May 23, 2015

Aletheia House-Teen Who Care (TWC)

Saturday, May 16 will host the 1st Annual Prevention Spring Fling
 9am-2pm Aletheia House-Finley Location

Tuesday, May 19—Roundtable discussion from 6pm -8pm with convenience store owners addressing alcohol placement and tobacco and alcohol advertising placement

Wednesday, May 20 a Speak Out Town Hall Meeting from 6pm -8pm focused on how to make prevention efforts more effective in local communities in the city of Birmingham

Franklin Primary Care- Mobile, AL

(May 18) Booths will be set up at Franklin Primary Health Medical Mall will be set up to disseminate information regarding the Prevention of Tobacco Use & (May 19) Prevention of Underage Drinking; patients and community members will receive free giveaways.

Adrian Fox will be teaching members of a therapeutic group healthy coping skills for youth in their lives as well as other family members. They will also receive information on the dangers of Spice (Synthetic Marijuana).

May 22- A Prevention Specialist will be available at the Maysville Clinic to provide support, education and the dissemination of information of Suicide Prevention as well as giving out stickers and magnets with crisis information.

SPECTRACARE—Dothan, Alabama

May 15- "I Choose" Project photo booth at Wiregrass Commons Mall in Dothan, AL from 10am – 2pm. Mall patrons will have an opportunity to take a phot holding the SAMHSA "I CHOOSE" sign with will feature their desired healthy choice. All photos taken will remain on display during National Prevention Week.

A community spotlight window display in a storefront at the Wiregrass commons Mall in Dothan, Alabama

Tuesday, May 19-Town Hall Meeting on Prescription Drug Abuse at the CB&T Bank 510 Andrews Avenue in Ozark from 6-8 pm; open to the public

Prescription Drug Take Back Event at CVS Pharmacy 176 Andrews Avenue in Ozark from 10am-2pm.

Quest Recovery Center-Decatur, Alabama DMH

Will be visiting various businesses and organizations including the Department of Human Resources, local Court House, medical clinics and etc., to deliver pamphlets , brochures or other materials on prevention specific to the daily themes for National Prevention Week 2015

CED Mental Health Center-Attalla, AL

A documentary entitled "Anonymous People" will be show to approximately 30 to 80 16-24 year olds participating in Etowah County Job Corps program.

Cheaha Regional Health Center -Sylacauga, AL

Monday, May 18- Will host a banquet-style Town Hall Meeting at the Sanctuary in Sylacauga on Underage and Binge Drinking. Keynote speaker is Mr. Michael Lutzenkirchen, father of the late Auburn University tight end Philip Lutzenkirchen whose life was lost in a deadly vehicle accident. They will have discussion on the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol and smoking and not wearing seatbelts.

Chilton-Shelby Mental Health Center-Calera, AL

Saturday May 23—will host "The Changing Atmosphere Around You" parent workshop at the CSMHC in Calera. The workshop is open to all parents in the Shelby County area, with specific emphasis on parents of Montevallo Middle School.

COSA-NCADD- Montgomery, AL

Thursday, May 21- in partnership with the Montgomery Job Corps Center will host a health fair with numerous community agency vendors from the Montgomery County area.

Drug Education Council-Mobile, AL

Monday, May 18-will host a Press Conference with law enforcement, emergency room physician, media and parents to inform on the dangers of Spice, Alcohol, tobacco and other drugs, underage drinking, prescription drug abuse, youth marijuana use and suicide

Saturday, May 23- will participate in "Stop the Madness" Community Summit. A variety of information about the use and misuse of drugs will be available as well as free food and shoes for the community members.

Drug Ed will utilize Facebook to provide information on suggested daily themes for NPW 2015

<https://www.facebook.com/DrugEducationCouncil?fref=ts>

Northwest Alabama Mental Health Center-Jasper, AL

Interactive presentation using impairment goggles on the dangers of underage drinking and the effects of alcohol on the body, will be held at (Mon) TR Simmons School, (Tues) Memorial Park & West Jasper School.

West Alabama Mental Health Main Center- Demopolis, AL

Friday, May 22—will feature a Prevention Week Art Exhibit showcasing local youth's ability to create drawings and painting expressing the topic "Healthy Mind, Healthy Body" ...the community will be invited to attend from 11am -2pm. Goodies will be provided.

Friday, May 22-Prevention Week Party at Foscue Creek on Lock Dam Road in Demopolis from 11am-2pm. Local students and parents with gater and receive information of various topics including mental health and wellness, suicide prevention, marijuana use, underage drinking, "parents that host lose the most campaign, and other prevention information will be available at a table displayed by WAMHC Prevention Team.