

2020 Alabama Institute for Recovery

Call for Presentations

April 6-8, 2020

Shocco Springs Conference Center
Talladega, Alabama

The Alabama Institute for Recovery is scheduled for April 6, 7, & 8, 2020 at Shocco Springs Conference Center near Talladega, Alabama.

This annual event has become one of the highlights of the year for many consumers in Alabama. Over 800 attendees from around the state gather for three days of education and fellowship. The conference features nationally known speakers and a number of workshops on consumer issues and interests. Social activities include a talent show and dance. Most of the attendees are consumers, and the conference often includes consumers from other states and international attendees.

The Alabama Institute for Recovery is planned and coordinated by individuals in recovery from mental illness and is a project of the Office of Peer Programs of the Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services Division of the Alabama Department of Mental Health and Wings Across Alabama.

Presentation Topics and Themes

Session and workshop topics should be of issues, information and interests of individuals in recovery from mental illness. Topics include but are not limited to recovery, living in the community, peer support and the changing landscape of the mental health system.

Presentation opportunities include plenary sessions and workshops. Workshops and plenary sessions are 60 minutes long. Audience participation is strongly encouraged for both the plenary sessions and workshops.
