

ADMH Autism Services Training Part I

All performing providers must complete Part I Relias training before registering for Part II.

The screenshot displays the ADMH Academy Relias Learning website. At the top, the Alabama Department of Mental Health logo is visible, along with the tagline "Serve • Empower • Support". Navigation links include "Getting Started", "Accreditation Guide", "FAQs", "Customer Service", and "About Us". A green header bar contains "CETracker", "ADMH COURSES", and "ALL COURSES". A search bar is present with the text "What do you want to learn today?". On the left, a "CATEGORIES" section lists "ADMH Courses (26)" and "All Courses (2302)". Below this, a "Recently Viewed" section shows a thumbnail for the "ADMH Autism Services (ADMH-AS) - Provider Training Part 1" course. The main content area features the course title "ADMH Autism Services (ADMH-AS) - Provider Training Part 1" in green, followed by a description: "ADMH Autism Services (ADMH-AS) - Provider Training – Part 1 is a sixteen-course online training plan for approved applicant providers. Once initial applications have been received and approved by ADMH-AS, these courses must be completed to request enrollment in ADMH Autism Services Provider Training – Part 2 (in-person training). If you have questions about becoming a credentialed Autism Services provider through the Alabama Department of Mental Health, please contact autism.dmh@mh.alabama.gov." A list of 16 courses is provided, including "Introduction to Autism Spectrum Disorders", "Intellectual Disability Overview", "Introduction to Case Management", "Respecting Cultural Diversity in Persons with IDD", "Person Centered Planning for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities", "Client/Patient Rights", "Identifying and Preventing Child Abuse and Neglect", "Therapeutic Boundaries", "Introduction to HIPAA", "Addressing the Needs of Transition Age Youth", "Human Growth and Development Across the Lifespan", "Risk Management for Individuals with IDD", "Crisis Management", "Positive Behavior Support for Children", "Maintaining Client Dignity Through the Behavior Change Process", and "Legal and Ethical Standards of Care in Behavioral Health". The item number is #276692. On the right, there is a "SEND TO A FRIEND" section with a "Tweet" button and "Recommend 0" and "Share" buttons. At the bottom right, a "OTHERS ORDERED" section is visible.

<https://admh.academy.reliaslearning.com/ADMH-Autism-Services-ADMH-AS-Provider-Training-Part-1.aspx>

Once all courses have been completed, send final transcript to shirah.suttles@mh.alabama.gov