

2021 Alabama Institute for Recovery

August 23, 24, & 25, 2021

Shocco Springs

Covid-19

- We highly recommend that you be fully vaccinated for Covid-19 prior to attending the conference.
- For the safety of those attending this year's conference, attendance will be limited as will the number of scholarships available this year.
- We encourage you to register early
- We also encourage you and your roommate send in your registrations together. If that is not possible send them around the same date. This will ensure that you have the roommate of your choice and you can ensure that neither of you have tested positive for Covid-19
- Large groups should send in all applications together, along with staff if applicable

Important – Shocco Springs Campus is in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains and attending activities at Shocco Springs requires walking up and down hills. Some lodging is located away from the main campus center. Lodging is on a first-come first-serve basis, with the rooms in the main area going to the early registrants. We may not be able to provide lodging near all activities. Transportation to and from events is not provided.
