Instructions for completing the ADMH Autism Services Client Application

Please use this guide to help you through the application process. Check off each step as it is completed. Contact the Autism Intake Specialist at karmelia.brown@mh.alabama.gov or 800-499-1816 if you need assistance.

	1. Complete the application for ADMH Autism Services
	2. Submit copies of the following documents with the application:
	a. Assessment of Autism Spectrum Disorder (Psychological Evaluation, Adaptive Skills testing, diagnostic report, Autism Diagnostic Tool for Healthcare Providers) If diagnostic assessments are completed by other professionals, a licensed psychologist or physician can confer an ASD diagnosis based on assessment results. Only diagnoses from a licensed psychologist or physician are accepted
	b. Comprehensive medical history and most recent physical/well visit screening
	c. Copy of reports describing the disability completed by schools attended or other services agencies (e.g. IEP, IFSP, 504 Plan, Speech/Language Report etc.)
	d. Copy of reports documenting involvement of child-serving agencies such as DHR, DYS, ADRS etc.
	e. Copy of discharge summary from inpatient/residential placement if applicable
	f. Copy of Social Security Card
	g. Copy of Medicaid Card
	h. Copy of Private Insurance Card if applicable
	i. Copy of Guardianship or Custody documents if applicable
	j. Authorization for Release of Information (requires signature) if you would like us to request/release records and or information from a specific agency
	k. Notice of Privacy (requires signature)
	3. Return the application and requested documents to the Intake Specialist at karmelia.brown@mh.alabama.gov or ADMH Autism Services 100 North Union Street Suite 350 Montgomery, AL 36130-1410

Once it is determined that all necessary documentation has been received, you will be contacted by your Regional Autism Coordinator to schedule a screening assessment.
