ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL (RFP)

Leading Alabama's efforts to enhance the health and well-being of individuals, families, and communities impacted by mental illness, developmental disabilities, substance use, the Alabama Department of Mental Health (ADMH) is seeking proposals for the use of the ADMH Opioid Settlement Grant Program. Funds allocated for The ADMH Opioid Settlement Grant Program are appropriated through Act 2023-384. The purpose of this grant program is to prevent, reduce, treat, or mitigate the effects of opioid substance use and has a total grant amount of $8,500,000.

A. OPIOID IMPACT

The opioid epidemic has taken an enormous toll on our country. In the United States over a million lives have been lost to drug overdose since 1999. It is estimated that in 2021, over 107,000 people died of a drug overdose in the US, and opioids were involved in 75% of these deaths. National overdoses involving any opioid from 1991-2021 were documented at 80,411; overdoses from all substances during the same period reached 106,699. These were the years of the greatest increase in opioid related overdoses, according to the CDC.

From 2012 to 2017, Alabama was ranked number one in the nation for prescription opioids— a key contributor to the rising misuse of opioids and ultimately opioid overdose deaths. In 2021, overdose deaths were up 31% which led to Alabama having one of the highest increases in overdose rates in the country – the primary culprit being fentanyl overdoses by users who didn't know they were using fentanyl. The crisis worsened during the COVID-19 pandemic; an estimated 106,000 people died from opioid overdoses in 2020 alone - more than in any other year. The number of overdose deaths in Alabama rose from 739 to 979 in 2020. Over 100,000 nation-wide people died because of the overdose epidemic from September 2020 to September 2021. Approximately 75,000 of those deaths involved opioids, most of which were due to synthetic opioids such as fentanyl. Most recently, from 2021 to 2022, the CDC estimates nearly 110,000 lives lost from drug overdose deaths, largely driven by synthetic opioids.

By the end of 2021, opioid prescriptions in Alabama were down by 38%. While some of the most recent reports indicate a leveling of opioid overdose related deaths, Alabama is still below the national average in the percent of positive change to the number of opioid related deaths (-0.8% below national stats as of May 2023 with an overall 12.39% increase in deaths).

According to the National Survey on Drug Use and Health, in 2020, an estimated 5.1 million people misused stimulants. While opioids and stimulants are separate classes of substances, trends showed increases in the use of stimulants as many opioid users would attempt to balance the highs and lows between these two different substances. However, these drugs are linked: people who use one may be introduced to the other, one may be substituted for the other, or mask the withdrawal effects of the other. The concurrent use of stimulants and opioids has led to higher rates of dependence and riskier use linking both substances to increased overdose rates.

B. CATEGORIES OF FUNDING

Applicants must select one of the three primary categories and clearly identify which category was chosen.

Primary Categories:

Treatment services:

Prevention Services

Recovery Support Services

Below are priorities from the 2022 Annual Report from the Alabama Opioid Overdose and Addiction Council, and examples from other states for spending of settlement funding. It is strongly recommended that the applicants use these to inform the decision on the type of program that is being proposed.
